

Pinson Valley High School Dress Code Consequence Explanation

Dear Parent(s),

In the spirit of creating a positive learning environment and preparing our students for life skills outside of and beyond high school, you have received this letter, which is an explanation of the consequences that a student will incur for committing a dress code infraction at Pinson Valley High School. Please be advised of the following consequences each time that a PVHS student is found to have committed a dress code infraction:

- First Offense: Principal/student conference, parental contact and required academic or work assignment.
- Second Offense: Principal/student conference, parental contact and up to two (2) hours of “out-of-school detention” (see page 8) or in-school detention for one day.
- Third Offense: Required in-school parental conference. Up to three (3) hours of “out-of-school detention” or in-school detention for one day. Students cannot return to school until the parental conference is held.
- Fourth Offense: Required in-school parental conference. Up to four (4) hours of “out-of-school detention” or in-school detention for two (2) days. Students cannot return to school until the parental conference is held. Corporal punishment may be administered according to Jefferson County Board of Education policy.
- Fifth Offense: Required in-school parental conference. Up to one (1) day suspension. Students cannot return to school until the parental conference is held. Corporal punishment may be administered according to Jefferson County Board of Education policy.
- Sixth Offense: Same as a Class II Offense.

Parent(s), please note that after the first out-of-school suspension, should your child continue to commit a dress code infraction, additional out-of-school suspensions and further actions as necessary will take place. We sincerely want to provide your child excellence in education at Pinson Valley High School, and we are asking for your support, as helping your child to become a successful, productive, responsible adult is a joint effort.

I understand this is the first violation of dress code for my child I also understand the above document that explains consequences that my child/I (student) will incur for violating the dress code of Pinson Valley High School.
